ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The LPG backtest shows strong alpha potential with a +41.35% ROI and a 1.13 Sharpe ratio, driven primarily by a single profitable trade. However, the strategy is statistically fragile due to only three executed trades, rendering the 66.7% win rate and 21.82% drawdown metrics unreliable predictors of future performance. The sample size is insufficient to confirm robustness against market variance or regime changes. I recommend expanding the simulation window or increasing trade frequency to validate the consistency of the entry logic.
